Greetings,

We asked some important questions last year at Big Horn Advertising and God answered in big ways. We focused on how we can create the biggest impact for the businesses that advertise with us. As we pondered and prayed on how to do this, God opened new doors and we now have three types of print and online directories each with a different focus for distribution.

- Local Area: one community or one type of business with customers who prefer to buy from that community. We can create a custom directory for your community!
- Regional Area: five major cities and all the small towns in the area, customers will drive a couple hours for special events and products or services they can't get at home.
- State-wide Area: small towns and plain communities, customers enjoy taking a day or weekend trip for an experience and for products and services that are worth the drive or can be delivered.

It has been a journey as we navigate these new waters. It makes us very happy to know as we focus on who will be picking up these publications that the businesses in the directory will be getting in front of their ideal customer which will have a bigger impact for their business.

We want to thank all the businesses in this directory and those businesses that stayed advertising in Big Horn as Bonnie and Clifford passed us the touch three years ago. It brings us great joy to meet with the business owners and serve you.

Be Well & God Bless,
Angie & Derrick Huffman

HOW TO USE QR CODES

A special feature in the directories created by Big Horn Advertising are QR Codes. When you hover the camera on your phone over the icon, a pop up will appear to open a website. Click on that and a website will appear with details, pictures and information about that business or group of businesses.

BIG HORN

Advertising

TWO CHALLENGES FACING BUSINESSES TODAY

Lack of visibility or awareness:

If potential customers don't know about your business, they won't be able to purchase your products or services. Building visibility through advertising in Big Horn print directories can help you attract new customers.

Difficulty in building trust:

In today's world, customers are often skeptical about businesses they're not familiar with. You can build trust with your customers by sharing about your company and your services through Big Horn online profiles.

EXTRA MARKETING SUPPORT FOR BUSINESSES WHO ADVERTISE WITH BIG HORN:

BUSINESS WEBSITES

A company website allows you to showcase your products/services and provide information about your business. Our annual hosting includes domain address, security certificate, and website content changes.

LOCAL BUSINESS SEO

We setup or update your Google Business Profile and the backend of your website with tags and keywords so you can be found online.

PROMOTIONAL ITEMS

Raise your brand recognition, reach a wider audience and gain attention with your logo on pens, calendars, rulers or other items.

MARKETING MATERIALS

Create a professional first impression with a business card, brochure, letterhead or other printed materials created by our graphic designer.
